Course Reserves in OneSearch

Search Course Reserves

In OneSearch, go to the Search Box.

- It's defaulted to search Everything.
- You can also limit the scope to Course Reserves.

In the Search Box, you can search by typing:

Course

- Code:
  - Phil3 (no space, to make it more unique in the search)
  - Phil 3
- Name: Elementary Statistics
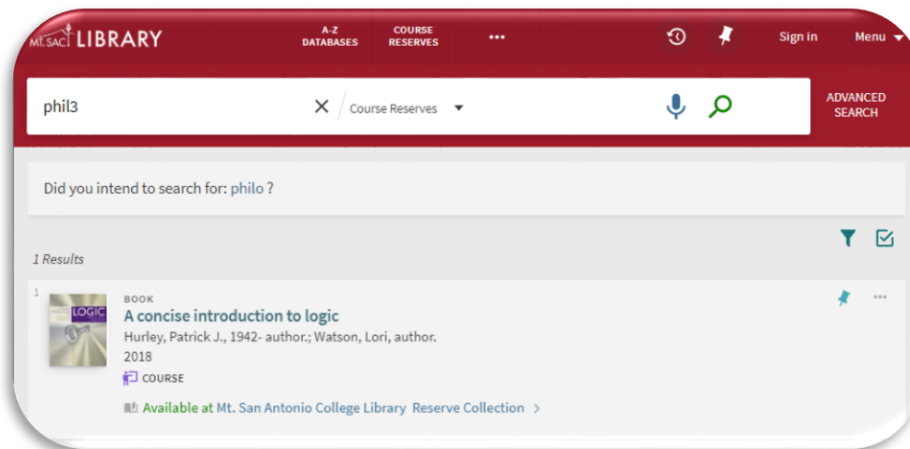

Instructor

- Last name: Komrosky

Department

- Abbreviation in the Schedule of Classes: PHIL
- Full name: Philosophy

Display Results

The Reserve items should be one of the first items displayed in Results.

If you searched it with the Course Reserve search scope, note the Categorization on the left. It reflects how you can search course reserves:

- Course Code
- Course Name
- Course Department
- Course Instructor

Display Record

For Reserves, pay attention to three areas in the Record:

- Brief information of the material (Title, author and year)
- Location(s) and Availability
- Course Information in the Details section

BOOK
A concise introduction to logic
Hurley, Patrick J., 1942- author.; Watson, Lori, author.
2018
📑 COURSE

📖 Available at Mt. San Antonio College Library Reserve

Send to

🖨 PRINT   🔗 PERMALINK   ✉ EMAIL   ❞ CITATION

Find it

< BACK TO LOCATIONS

LOCATION ITEMS

Mt. San Antonio College Library
Available , Reserve Collection
(1 copy, 1 available, 0 requests)

Item in place
Sign in for loan details

Details

Course Information	PHIL3: Introduction to Logic; Philosophy; Komrosky, Joseph
Title	A concise introduction to logic
Creator	Hurley, Patrick J., 1942- author. >
	Watson, Lori, author. >
Subject	Logic >

Brief Information such as the title, author, and year. There is also an icon and the word "COURSE" that tells us this is a Course Reserve item.

Locations & Availability: Is it really in Reserve and is it available?

The courses and instructors that used this material.